HRLRC GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING AUGUST 10, 2002

A regular meeting of the HRLRC was held at the home of George and Beverly Schnell. Members in attendance were: Pauline Mortier, George & Beverly Schnell, Mike Rathsburg, Annie Cogo, Helen Bronson, Mark Foster and Jeanine Asch.

Meeting called to order at 2:20 p.m. by President Beverly Schnell.

Treasurer's report was accepted as read.

Minutes from the July meeting were approved as read.

Annie is working on obtaining the airfare for the judges. Since Paula Nykiel is also judging Saturday and Sunday at the Monroe Kennel Club shows, Annie is going to see if the Monroe Kennel Club will be paying 2/3 of her airfare. Bev received a call from Bob Curtis inquiring about the number of stewards required. He stated we might have to pay in order to get additional stewards.

The judges' sheets from the July Fun Match have been misplaced. Pauline will include the results in the newsletter once they are found.

There was a suggestion to continue to support the Genessee County Kennel Club show as well as possibly add Sweepstakes classes.

If you have not yet paid your dues for this year, please get them in to Cheryl. The deadline is approaching.

New members and prospective members who are considering joining the club should be supplied with a welcome packet. This should include a welcome letter and copies of the club constitution and by-laws.

Annie has been in touch with the gentleman with the bomb dog. He is supposed to get back in touch with her in a couple of weeks to schedule a demonstration.

Reminder to board members---if you are unable to attend a meeting, please inform Bev.

The next General Membership Meeting will be September 6. The next

Board Meeting will be September 17 at Shaps on the corner of Hill and Torrey Roads.

Meeting adjourned at 3:05 p.m.
Respectfully submitted,
Jeanine Asch, Recording Secretary

ONLINE AUCTION TO BENEFIT LABRADORS IN NEED

Labrador Life Line announces that their Third Annual LABOR OF LOVE AUCTION is scheduled to run on a computer near you! The auction will run from the 23rd of August to the 6th of September this year, so start saving your pennies and nickels for the shopping spree of the season. As always this fundraiser will be to help those Labradors we've yet to meet.

If you would like to donate anything for our auction please feel free to contact us for the required address information! You can send a request to our webmaster (webmaster@labradorlife.org), or contact any board member listed on the Labrador Life Line (www.labradorlifeline.org) web site.

FDA: 41 BRANDS of DOG FOOD CONTAIN PENTOBARBITAL

Pentobarbital is the same poison used to euthanize animals, and has tested positive in 41 brands of dog food. Veterinarians use it to euthanize sick pets. Slaughterhouses use it to kill diseased farm animals. The FDA says after the animals are killed, their carcasses are sent to meat processing plants and then sold to dog food makers.

It is unknown at this time if the poison can build up over time and damage a dog's organs, especially the liver, kidneys, and central nervous system.

CALLING ALL PHOTOGRAPERS!

Do you have any interesting Labrador photos to share? Scan and send to the editor to place in our newsletter now that we are online and can all enjoy our dogs' antics. If unable to scan simply mail photo to the editor for scanning to include in our online newsletter and photo will be returned.

VETERANS' CLASS

Submitted by Annie Cogo

I see that the Smiths have entered their dog in the Veterans Class. Apparently there is no one in this Club who knows that it is customary to offer a round of applause for those that are entered. Six months ago, at this same show, I entered my Veteran Dog in this same class. Not one person applauded. Not one person made him feel he belonged again. He was no threat to anyone. He wasn't going to beat anyone, take any points, or win anything. He was just an old dog who thought he was special again---back in the ring for the first time in many years. Maybe he even recalled his "Glory Days". He would have loved to have met anyone there. He would have welcomed you like an old friend. You didn't have to say anything nice about him if you didn't want to. But just in case you can't think of anything to say about a Veteran Dog, here are some suggestions: "It was nice to see him out there". Or go up to him and tell him he's a "Good Boy". Or tell his owner that you are glad that they brought him. Those aren't exactly compliments, but they will please his owner and make him glad that they brought him. I don't think that's asking too much. One day, all too soon, all your beautiful young dogs will be old dogs too. Maybe on day you'll enter them in a Veterans Class. And I hope that you do. Or, like many of us, you remember that old friend, now gone, and wish you still had the chance. They deserve it. It may be their final time in the sun; their last time out in front of people. Their last time to ever be in the ring. My old dog is a Fool. He thought he was wonderful that day. He thought he belonged. Instead, he was ignored. I have thought about this for 6 months now, and wasn't going to say anything. But on his behalf, and that of any other Veteran, I hope that something like this never occurs again. As a Club of (Breed) Fanciers, you should feel ashamed. Even if you dislike the dog or his owner, at least show Good Sportsmanship and do the Right Thing.

Show others that you have respect for your breed. Make that Veteran Dog feel wanted and special again. Let him know that you are glad to see him. It will make his day. You may never get the chance again. Thank you.”

As Lynda began reading it, the hush that fell over the room was incredible. Bless her heart, my friend Lynda broke into tears as she struggled through reading this. EVERYONE in the room lowered their heads, and many of them began to cry also, including the President (who is a man). I tried my best to hold my head up and refrain from tears, again. The President strode over to where I was sitting and in a broken voice said “Terry . . . I am SO sorry. He is such a wonderful dog. There is no excuse for what happened to you. And to him.”

As I started to say that I “wasn’t going to say anything” again, the room nearly burst with everyone trying to talk at once. The discussion that followed was both eye-opening and of valuable purpose. Many came up to me in tears, with hugs and apologies. I am a very private and shy person, not given to sharing my deepest feelings easily. This had been an incredibly difficult thing for me to do, but in honor of my Veteran and all the others out there, I felt it must be done. Was it worth it?

When Mr. Smith took his lovely 12 ½ year old dog (neutered due to testicular cancer) into the ring, our entire membership remained and applauded and “whooped and hollered” him with every move. The Judge moved to the center of the ring on his final go round and applauded, as did her ring stewards. Others nearby, watching other breeds, came over and remarked on how wonderful it was to see a Veteran being treated like that. Many (including me) asked to take his picture. Everyone complimented him and his owners. If only my old dog had enjoyed such a day. . . Was it worth it? You tell me . . .

Sorry for the length of this, but so many in other breeds who heard about what happened have already asked me for a copy of my written paper that I thought perhaps it was something that needed to be shared. Amazing how quickly word spreads amongst us dog people. It’s often said, “You can’t teach an old dog new tricks”. But I know one old dog who taught something of great value.
